We are pleased to welcome AAUW's CEO, Kim Churches; Julia Brown, AAUW Board Chair, and Susan Landino, truly a woman undaunted, a successful LAF plaintiff who took a stand against Yale University's policies on Title IX and won in the only non-sports related Title IX. Lawsuit to date.

Important focus topics will address the issues of our time:

- Real Women Run of Utah: Encouraging, training and mentoring women to run for elected office. Start local, provide support, educate, build on the momentum. Keep it going.
- Title Nine and other Protections: Stand against sexual assault, support for the long term.
- Coalitions and Supportive Group Work: Achieve a larger voice for women, stand together.
- Support and funding strategies for girls' and women's education: STEM training for girls, wage negotiation skills, educational, financial, and emotional support for working women.
- Equity and Wage Gaps: Efforts and strategies to break down local challenges and bias.
- State Reports: Successful AAUW projects in the Rocky Mountain Region.

Please join us at the conference at the Radisson Hotel sited in Salt Lake City's unique downtown area. Friday evening take a tour to view and enjoy the Utah Women Artists Exhibition (UWAE) at the Utah Cultural Celebration Center. This will be the 6th UWAE exhibition at the UCCC, a biannual event begun in 1982 to provide an art venue unique and only open to women in Utah.
