i. No refunds of registration fees or meal costs will be made after the date given in registration information without consent of the executive committee.

j. Any money remaining after the settlement of all convention accounts shall be remitted to the state treasurer, for the state general fund, within two weeks after all bills have been paid, but no later than June 15.

k. Members not attending the convention may pay for individual events and meals.

8. Host Branch. The host branch will:

a. Arrange for meeting place or places, guest accommodations and group meals and negotiate all necessary contracts.

b. Appoint a convention treasurer who will handle all convention finances, maintain an orderly record of all income and expenses, and make a final report to the state treasurer with repayment of any advanced money.

c. Prepare a convention budget, in consultation with the president and vice president for program development, that includes all anticipated expenses, and establish the registration fee based on that budget. Establish a cutoff date for registration surcharge and "no refunds after" date.

d. Appoint a convention credentials chair.

e. Appoint pages and timekeepers for business meetings.

f. Refer to the convention-planning manual for more detailed information.

g. Maintain an orderly set of records that will be helpful to the next host branch.

9. Convention Program.

a. The convention program will be planned by the state program development committee under the direction of the vice president for program development in consultation with the host branch regarding meeting spaces.

b. An AAUW leader on loan may be requested to meet the needs of the convention program, following AAUW guidelines for such requests.

J. EXPENDITURES.

1. Expenses to be paid from state funds by the treasurer may be presented on the voucher form available from the treasurer. Receipts should be attached to the voucher; small amounts shall be accumulated and submitted on one voucher; the voucher shall indicate the budget to be charged.

a. All vouchers shall be signed by the person seeking reimbursement and then shall be forwarded to the president who will sign and forward to the treasurer for payment.

b. Committee members will be paid $10 for attendance at committee meetings. Committee members shall give signed vouchers to the committee chair who will forward the vouchers to the treasurer for submittal to the president.

c. Mileage will be paid for state board, executive committee, and interbranch council meetings at the going federal government rate per mile for mileage over 200 miles round trip. Only one mileage payment will be made to a branch for each meeting. Mileage payments will be requested on vouchers.

d. The treasurer will compute mileage for each affected branch for each meeting. An officer may submit a voucher based on actual odometer reading.

2. Expenses may also be submitted to the Treasurer via electronic means such as email. Such submittal will include receipts and indicate the budget to be charged. The Treasurer will submit all requests to the President for approval and retain documentation of the approval.

K. COMMUNICATIONS.

1. The newsletter is the primary communication method to reach all Colorado members. Information of interest to all members is published in the newsletter and on the website.

a. The name of the newsletter and frequency of its publication will be determined by the executive committee on an annual basis, based on its evaluation of current needs and opportunities.

b. The newsletter will be emailed to selected national AAUW officers, Colorado members, members-at-large living in Colorado, Colorado college/university members, potential members requesting a copy and representatives of partner organizations.

c. The newsletter may be sent at the discretion of the newsletter editor to presidents and editors in other states.

2. During the year, each branch will forward to the circulation manager all address changes, and names and addresses for new members.

L. ADVERTISEMENTS.

1. The newsletter does not print advertisements.

2. Publications which do print advertisements will comply with the following guidelines:

a. Advertisements shall be limited to those dealing with products and services.

b. Members and their immediate families may advertise.

c. No advertisement will be accepted that is in conflict with any program or policy of the AAUW or AAUW Colorado.

d. The following advertisements will not be accepted:

- those containing coupons

- those containing prices

- campaign ads for elected officials, partisan or non-partisan

- those offering any “give-away” item.
- e. Advertisements shall be limited to no more than 10% of a publication’s printed material.
- f. Advertisements will be submitted camera-ready.
- g. The publication editor will be responsible for layout of advertisements.
- h. A record of all monies earned from advertising will be maintained, and funds will be forwarded to the treasurer.
- i. Income from advertising will be used to defray expenses of the publication.
- j. The following disclaimer will be printed in each publication with advertising: “AAUW Colorado will not be held responsible for the quality or safety of goods and/or services advertised herein.”
- k. The executive committee will evaluate, update, and recommend policies concerning advertising.

M. MEMBERSHIP.

1. Refer to Bylaws, AAUW Colorado, Articles IV and VIII.
2. The vice president for membership will inform branches of national members living in the branch area.
3. Members may hold dual membership by payment of branch dues in more than one branch. A dual member has the following privileges and restrictions:
 - a. A dual member is entitled to all branch privileges and is entitled to vote on all questions in both the branch where the regular membership is held and in the dual branch.
 - b. A dual member is entitled to hold the office of president only in the branch where the regular membership is recorded.
 - c. A dual member is entitled to hold any other office in the branch where the regular membership is recorded and in the dual branch unless branch bylaws provide otherwise.
4. Instances of persons who claim membership in AAUW but are not members of AAUW shall be reported to the vice president for membership who will consult with the president regarding appropriate action by AAUW.

N. DUES.

1. Refer to Bylaws, AAUW Colorado Article IV, Section 4 and Article VIII.
2. Each branch shall pay annual state dues of $10.00 for each member and associate member, excepting those members whose dues are paid directly to the AAUW. E-student affiliates and student affiliates of a branch shall not pay annual state dues.

O. RELEASE OF MAILING LIST.

1. The state will not release branch mailing lists.
2. The roster of the board of directors may be released, subject to the following restrictions, on the recommendation of the president in consultation with the public policy director.
 - a. The purposes for which the list is released must be compatible with the goals, purposes and policies of AAUW.
 - b. The roster will not be released for the purpose of direct mailing advertising or any other potential revenue source.
 - c. The roster will not be released to any candidates for public office.

P. INTERBRANCH COUNCIL.

1. Branches may form interbranch councils.
2. The operating rules or guidelines for each interbranch council will be filed with the executive committee, the director of public policy, the bylaws chair, and any other person designated by the president.

Q. RESOLUTIONS.

1. No resolution shall be in conflict with the bylaws, programs or focus of AAUW.
2. A resolution shall be adopted by a three fourths vote of the state board of directors or of the voting members to the state convention. Advance notice is not required.
3. After adoption, a resolution cannot be modified during the same session in which it was adopted. A resolution can be suspended, modified or rescinded in any future session of the same group which originally adopted the resolution.
4. The secretary will maintain a list, in addition to minutes, of all resolutions adopted by the state. The resolutions list will show all subsequent action on each resolution.
5. The president will appoint a resolutions committee that will report in writing of any resolutions that should be retired with rationale for retirement. With approval of the executive committee, a motion for retirement will be presented to the body which originally adopted the resolution. Retirement of a resolution will be duly noted in the resolutions list but it will remain in the list as historic record.

R. ARCHIVES. The Archives for AAUW Colorado will be placed with the Denver Public Library’s Western History/Genealogy Department.

S. FINANCIAL RESERVE.

1. A financial reserve will be maintained in the amount of $15,000 in a certificate of deposit (CD) plus the dollar amount of the penalty that would be assessed if the CD would need to be cashed in advance of the maturity date.
2. Requests to spend any portion of the reserve require approval by the state board of directors.

T. BUDGET PROCESS.

1. At the state convention the Finance Chair or Treasurer asks state officers and committee chairs to submit budget amounts for the following year's state budget.
2. During the summer, the finance committee meets and sets the state budget based on the previous year's budget and requests from officers and committee chairs. The budget is based on the state's strategic plan.
3. The finance committee presents the proposed state budget to the executive committee for review at the Fall Leadership Conference. The executive committee does not vote on the budget.
4. The finance committee submits the budget at the state board of directors meeting at the Fall Leadership Conference. It is the board of directors' responsibility to vote on the proposed state budget and approve budget requests.

U. AMENDMENTS.

1. These operating policies may be amended at a regular meeting of the board of directors by a two-thirds vote provided notice of said amendment has been given in writing to each member of the board at least thirty days prior to the meeting at which it is to be voted upon.
2. Without thirty days' written notice, these operating policies may be amended at a regular meeting by a two-thirds vote provided there is intervening business between presentation of an amendment and voting thereon.
